

SAHELI NEEDS VOLUNTEERS

Volunteers are needed to teach Computer Literacy classes to new immigrants. All teachers are welcome. Location: Cambridge Public Library, Central Square, 45 Pearl Street. Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Internet and Email. 2 hours each week Thursdays 6-8 p.m. Commitment to two classes 4 hours (required). Curriculum and teacher's aide provided. Excellent classroom 13 PC's and projection screen. Dedicated, organized and reliable volunteers contact sahelihelp@gmail.com

Volunteers are needed to teach English to speakers of other languages in Billerica and Burlington. New classes are starting soon. Commitment to two classes 4 hours (required). Curriculum and teacher's aide provided. Dedicated, organized and reliable volunteers to teach simple English conversation and vocabulary, contact sahelihelp@gmail.com

Volunteers are needed to help Saheli with community outreach, publicity of events, domestic violence programs and helping and organizing annual fundraiser. Work with domestic violence program requires 36 hours training at a state recognized agency. We help to identify suitable training locations. Volunteers work from home mostly. Course credits for students, small stipends for survivors of domestic violence. Contact sahelihelp@gmail.com 1-866-4SAHELI

www.saheliboston.org

P. O. Box 1345, Burlington, MA 01803

Saheli is the premier South Asian Women's Group. Saheli's mission is to empower women to lead fulfilling lives by providing friendship, support, and guidance through resources and volunteer opportunities.

Updated: January 2009