

SAHELI
Support For South Asian Women

WISH LIST - DONOR FORM

Founded in 1996 as an affiliate of the India Association of Greater Boston, Saheli – Support for South Asian Women, is the premier volunteer women’s organization serving South Asian community in the Greater Boston region. Saheli offers friendship and support to immigrant South Asian women and their families in five different capacities:

- a) Economic independence: Training and employment referrals and assistance
- b) Immigration and Legal Issues: Legal and immigration referrals and assistance
- c) Family discord and Domestic violence: Emergency shelter for women in crisis, and assistance including cash donations for food, and children’s supplies
- d) Women's Health: Referrals to physical and mental health service providers
- e) Community Outreach: Locating resources for low-income families.

We seek your help in building up the Domestic Violence and General Fund programs for women’s economic independence. Classes offered include classes in English as a Second Language (ESL) and Computer Literacy held throughout the year. We have the teachers, volunteers, curriculum and experience. We need funds for space, materials, stipends and program support.
